NUMB. 769

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 21. 1737.

No 777.

Constantinople, November 1.

H E Chief Dragoman, or Interpreter, of the Porte, went another Day to the Bailo or Minister of Venice, and by the Grand Seignior's Order declar'd to him, 'That his Highness had heard, they flatter'd themselves at Vienna, that the Venetians would declare War next Year against the Porte, in Order to make a Diversion in Favour of the Emperor: That tho' He (the Grand Seignior) was very indifferent, whether 'twould be so or not, considering that he knew he was in a Condition strong enough to repel his Enemies, yet he could not give Credit to what was given out upon that Head; and that therefore his Highness would be very glad to know from the Republick itself, if it really intended to have any Concern in the Continuation of the War betwixt the Porte and the Emperor.' The Bailo made Answer to the Dragoman, 'That as far as he could perceive hitherto, the Republick was inclined to keep the Peace with the Grand Seignior: That he had no Account of its having alter'd its Purpose, but that he would write to Venice for farther Satisfaction upon that Head.' The said Minister took that Opportunity to complain, that several of the Venetian Ships had been insulted by the Corsairs of Dalmatia in the Adriatick Gulph: But the Grand Seignior has given him to understand, that the Satisfaction which the Republick was to have, would depend upon the Answer given to the Premises.

SIR,

If you will be pleased to give this a Place in your Paper, you will much oblige me. It is a melancholy Ejaculation on a Friday Night, when my Chum and I had neither Supper nor Credit.

Trin. Col. Dub.

Your's, A. B.

N. B. I wrote the Latin, and the Translation is my Chum's.

Quid doleam! pungit cænx fugitiva Voluptas?

Stomachus imbecilis nunc alimenta spuit.

Hoc verum est? altus Uvas vulpecula quondam

Contempsit Spectas, prendere non valuit.

Who I pine for a Supper! O my Conscience not I? I hate Mutton most of all Meat.

Very true, so the Fox when the Grapes hung too high Cry'd out, Rot 'em, they're not fit to Eat.

From the London Gazette.

Vienna, Dec. 14, N. S. It is generally reported here, that the Duke of Lorain will command the next Year in Hungary, and Count Konigsegg under him, and that the Duke of Artemberg will be sent for from the Netherlands, and serve with Count Konigsegg.

Prince Hildburghausen lies dangerously ill at Gomora, of which Place he is Governor.

Prince Charles of Lorain returned on Saturday last from Presbourg, and is ill of a Fever, which however does not appear to be attended with any dangerous Symptoms.

About 3 or 4 Weeks ago, Count Philippi sent a Dragoman to the Bashaw of Bosnia, to propose the Exchange of the respective Prisoners of War.

That Bashaw took an Occasion from thence, to enter into a Conversation with the said Dragoman, and after having talked a good while about the Readiness which they (the Turks) were in, to renew the Treaty of Passarowitz with the Emperor, separately from the Czarina, he went so far as to offer an Armistice between the two Parties in Bosnia.

Count Philippi having given an Account here of this Step on the Part of the Bashaw, an Express has been dispatched with Orders to that General to let the Bashaw know, that tho' his Imperial Majesty was always ready to renew the Peace with the Porte upon honourable Conditions, yet he would never hearken to any Propositions of an Accommodation, exclusively of his true Friend and Ally the Czarina.

Copenhagen, Dec. 21, N. S. By an Ordinance dated November 23, and lately published here, the King of Denmark has thought fit to settle the Price of Danish Crowns at 34 Lyys Scillings each; which raises them to between 1 and 2 per Cent. above what they formerly went at, with respect to current Money: This is to be a fix'd Rate, without any Variation of Agio, throughout his Danish Majesty's Dominions; and the Reason alledg'd for this Alteration is, that those Crowns (which are the best Coin of the Country) bearing usually a higher Agio abroad than they did here, were clandestinely sent out of the Kingdom for the Sake of that Profit; so that by thus augmenting the Value, it is hoped both to stop such unlawful Practices for the future, and in some Measure to bring that Money back again to Denmark.

Hague, Dec. 24, N. S. Letters from Lecuwarden give an Account of the safe Arrival of the Princess Royal and the Prince of Orange there. The Retreat of the Turks from before Oczakow, after great Loss in their Assaults on the Place, is confirmed from all Parts.

Booty, took from Mr. Carpenter's Servant a Silver Watch and 14 s. and then rode off towards London, swearing he would shoot the first that offered to pursue him. He was mounted on a strong, bright, Bay Gelding, and was very well dress'd.

For the immediate Cure of BARRENNESS WOMEN, tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cause soever,

And also of
IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occasion'd, or of so long Standing,

The Famous and Inestimable PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The highest, richest and most powerful Cordial in Nature
is recommended,

BEING the only true and infallible Cure for BARRENNESS in Women and IMPOTENCY in Men the Universe, and which it at once accomplishes without least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd.

Thousands have experienced, and that by promoting the cleaful Curcle of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid, depressed State, to one more fluid and sparkling, opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves increasing the Animal Spirit, restoring a Juvenile Blood and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, in-thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd but by those who have experienced. Now exceedingly and insensibly it renovates, recruits, and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inspires a bright, lively Disposition, banishes Melancholy, inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression. A bundance of Latties, who for several Years were deemed Incurably Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and become Fruitful; and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who be-fast living, or otherwise, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, inasmuch, that very many illustrious Families, now for want of Children, were almost inconceivable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heits. It rectifies all Disorders the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even keeps back the Effects of Old Age itself. It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, at 5 s.
Bottle, with Directions.

These are to Certify whom it may concern,

THAT the Two Medicines for external Use, which have been sold with so much Success for the Good of Mankind near Thirty Years last past, are the Cure of

All Sorts of RUPTURES, BURSTEN, or BROKEN BELLIES.

are removed from the Minories where they have been sold the Author, so long, and are now sold only at Mr. Sandwell's Toytshop, the Sign of the Griffin, the Corner of Bucklers-bury in the Poultry, at 5 s. the Parcel, sealed up with printed Directions given with them.

These two Remedies need no other Recommendation than themselves will manifest in two or three Days using, having by their admirable and even astonishing Success, gained the Reputation they so justly deserve, both in City and Country, after wearing Trusses for many Years to no Purpose.

For by the Blessing of God, they make a perfect Cure either on Old or Young, in a very little Time, and for a small Charge, without any Pain to, or Confinement of the Patient, in one Parcel is generally sufficient for a complete Cure, especially on a young Person.

Many Hundreds of all Ages and Sexes have been cured by them, which occasioned this Publication, for the Good of the Publick, that all such unhappy People may be delivered from the Charge and Slavery of always wearing Trusses.

The World might have had many Certificates of Cures of Pe sons of all Ages, from Children of a few Months old, to grown Persons of 60 Years or upwards; but these People are naturally averse to let it be known, that they ever had such an Infirmity. Yet Mr. Sandwell can satisfy any Enquirer of the Validity of what is here said, tho' he has not had such large Knowledge, by reason of the Short Time he has sold 'em, as they from whom the Medicines are now, for good Reasons, removed.
